Re: Carroll v. Krumpter et al
Docket No.: CV 15-1550 (SJF) (ARL)
Notification of Related Cases
Local Rule 1.6 (a)

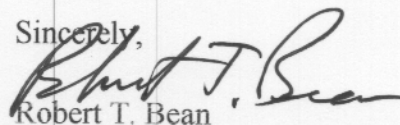

Dear Judge Feuerstein,

The above case involves the policy of the Nassau County Police Department of searching for and seizing firearms in all "domestic incidents" with a "police presence". There is a pending related case, Weinstein v. Krumpter et al, CV 14-7210 (ADS) (AKT) before Judge Spatt, involving essentially the same defendants and the same policy, which plaintiffs allege is unconstitutional. Judge Spatt has previously ruled on a similar seizure in Razzano v. County of Nassau, 765 F.Supp.2d. 176, E.D.N.Y. (2011). In that case he held that in the event of such firearm seizures, where the firearms are not fruits or instruments of a crime, where there is no arrest or charges filed and no Order of Protection, the owner of the seized firearms is entitled to a prompt post deprivation hearing.

Plaintiffs in both cases allege that the Defendants continue the same unconstitutional searches and seizures and have not complied with the Razzano decision by providing a prompt post deprivation hearing. Essentially the same injunctive relief is requested in both cases and there is pending before Judge Spatt a Motion for Preliminary Injunction which would apply to the Carroll case now pending in this court. Defendant have not yet answered or appeared in this matter. Notification of the related case was included in the Civil Cover Sheet.

Based on the above, you may wish to transfer this matter to Judge Spatt for judicial economy.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Bean
